

NBCE SEATS BOARD AND ELECTS OFFICERS AT 2016 ANNUAL MEETING

Greeley, Colo.—The National Board of Chiropractic Examiners (NBCE) held its annual meeting on April 29, 2016, in Phoenix, Arizona. State delegates elected Dr. LeRoy Otto (Minnesota) as District II Director and re-elected Dr. Daniel Côté (Oregon) as District I Director.

Three other district directors continue their terms on the NBCE board: Dr. Paul Morin (Maine) in District III, Dr. Ronald Tripp, Jr., (Oklahoma) in District IV, and Dr. Norman Ouzts, Jr., (South Carolina) in District V.

The board also has four at-large positions, three of which were open for election in 2016. Dr. Steven Conway (Wisconsin) and Dr. Hank Hulteen (South Carolina) were re-elected and Dr. John Nab (Wisconsin) was elected. Dr. Salvatore LaRusso (Florida) continues his term.

The Federation of Chiropractic Licensing Boards (FCLB) also fills two NBCE board positions. In 2016, FCLB President Dr. Farrel Grossman (South Carolina) and FCLB Vice President Dr. Margaret Colucci (Nevada) will continue their appointments to the NBCE Board.

Once the 11-member board was complete, officers were chosen: Dr. Paul Morin (Maine) was elected president, Dr. Steven Conway (Wisconsin) was elected vice president, Dr. Daniel Côté (Oregon) was elected secretary, and Dr. Salvatore LaRusso (Florida) was re-elected treasurer. These four officers make up the Executive Committee of the NBCE.

Headquartered in Greeley, Colo., NBCE's mission is: Ensuring professional competency through excellence in testing. Established in 1963, the NBCE develops, administers and scores legally defensible, standardized written and practical examinations for candidates seeking chiropractic licensure throughout the United States and in several foreign countries.

Front Row: Drs. Farrel Grossman, Paul Morin, Salvatore LaRusso

Back Row: Drs. Hank Hulteen, Norman Ouzts, Daniel Côté, LeRoy Otto, Margaret Colucci, Steven Conway, Ronald Tripp, John Nab