

CÔTÉ ELECTED NBCE SECRETARY AND DISTRICT I DIRECTOR

Greeley, Colo.—Daniel M. Côté, D.C., of Silverton, Ore., was elected District I Director at the Annual Meeting of the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners (NBCE) in Phoenix, Ariz., on April 29, 2016.

Dr. Côté was first elected to this position in 2013 and will now begin his second term in that role. District I covers the states of Alaska, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Nebraska. Dr. Côté will serve a term of three years.

At the annual meeting of the NBCE on April 29, Dr. Côté was elected to the Executive Committee of the NBCE Board of Directors and will serve in the role as secretary of the board for a one-year term.

A graduate of Parker College of Chiropractic in 1995, Dr. Côté was appointed to the Oregon Board of Chiropractic Examiners in 2010. He was elected vice president of that board in 2011-2012 and president in 2013-2015. Dr. Côté has previously participated in the NBCE Part III and Part IV test committees and as a chiropractic examiner for Part IV. He also served on the Federation of Chiropractic Licensing Boards committee that developed the Certified Chiropractic Clinical Assistant examination.

Headquartered in Greeley, Colo., the NBCE is the international testing organization for the chiropractic profession, with the mission of ensuring professional competency through excellence in testing. Established in 1963, the NBCE develops, administers and scores legally defensible, standardized written and practical examinations for candidates seeking chiropractic licensure throughout the United States and in several foreign countries.

