The NBCE is looking to add a temporary skilled and confident Senior Microsoft .NET Developer who can jump in and lead a project from start to finish, and use their creativity to enhance the user experience. This position is a project based, temporary full-time position with an expected duration of six months, but may be longer based on organizational needs and at the discretion of leadership. If this sounds like you, keep reading!

Primary Job Duties
- Use logic and technical knowledge to design and build complex applications to meet user requirements / specifications
- Analyze, maintain, modify, support, and test existing software applications
- Provide support to analyze and resolve complex problems that arise
- Research the causes and solutions of software defects
- Serve as team member on large-scale complex projects that require coordination, planning, and scheduling of work and resources
- Aid in skill development of other technical staff members
- Plan and prioritize assignments in order to meet user requirements
- Participate in meetings and openly discusses software development issues
- Use experience and knowledge to assist in the development of user requirements for new and/or existing applications
- Create and edit documentation to describe program operation and function

Requirements
- Minimum of 10 years of working experience in application and web development using Microsoft Products
- Demonstrated experience in Microsoft Access, VBA, SQL Server, VB.NET, C#
- Demonstrated experience with Microsoft SQL Server database design and TSQL
- Demonstrated experience with ASP.Net framework Web Forms and/or MVC design and development
- Demonstrated experience with HTML, CSS
- Demonstrated experience in IIS management

Desired Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities
- Demonstrable knowledge of mobile programming and strategies (Xamarin.Forms)
- Demonstrated experience migrating projects from VB to newer technologies
- Agile SCRUM, SDLC demonstrated experience
- Demonstrated experience using/writing APIs
- Requirements gathering, defining specifications, and project scope demonstrated experience

If you are a Senior Microsoft .NET Developer looking for your next big career opportunity, please apply today!

To apply: send your resume and cover letter with salary requirements to careers@nbce.org.